New-York Daily Tribuna

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1865.

Terms of the Tribune	· AA
DAILY TRIBUNE.
Mail subscribers,	$10.00
1 copy, 1 year—311 numbers. SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE.	$4.00
1 copy, 1 year-104 numbers,	7.00
2 copies, do
S copies, or over the TRIBUNE.	$2.00
1 copy, 1 year-52 numbers,	New-York.

The Tribune in London.

Covert Garden, W. C. l, are Agents for the sale of

NEWS OF THE DAY.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The steamship Belgian, from Liverpool Sept. 21, via Londonderry Sept. 22, arrived off Father Point yesterday, bringing two days later news from Europe. The Fenian movement continues to engross public attention is England. Numerous arrests continued to even spread in the English army. The American who had been arrested at The Irish People's office has been set free, but other arrests of Irish-Americans, arriving in Ireland, had been made. President Johnson and Secretary Seward were represented by the English press as the warm friends of England.

A meeting of American bondholders has been held at Frankfort. The hope was expressed that the Govern ment may soon be enabled to resume specie payments. According to a paper of Matameros, the Liberal Governor of Sonora has been deserted by all except two men. The Imperialists also claimed to have again been successful in the neighborhood of Tampico. Many of the Confederate Generals, who accepted service onder Maximilian, have left for Brazil.

Advices have been received from San Domingo to the 5th of September. The death penalty for political South. offenses has been abolished. The United States steamer Mercedita had arrived at San Domingo, and saluted the Deminican flag. Her commander, ac-companied by the American Consul, paid a visit to he prospects of the country are in every way ention to fight it out on that line. Troops were sent for to Leavenworth, and upon their arrival, by the use of tion has returned to Fort Laramie. He fought four lage, and running off 500 head of cattle. Although considerably cowed he considers them only half whipped. and the maintenance of a strong military guard neces

GENERAL NEWS.

In the Belmont robbery case yesterday, Chas. this act of Connecticut is not stamped with Jones, alias Chauncey Johnson, the accused, succeeded in proving an alibi. In the Adams Express case, wherein the same prisoner is charged with a package of $1,500 on the same day, the same defense was offered, and the prisoner's counsel moved his discharge. The Judge took the papers and reserved his animal verting on Washington seelety under Lincoln heard in any case that can arise in any court of vessel might have been stopped had there been what we have gained by our vast struggle. The writer, Mr. Dimitry, has been arrested and ledged in prison.

place of this corps.

Gen. Bristow, commanding at Lynchburg has been brought to Washington under arrest, charged though twenty blacks stand ready to prove his still we saw that all the while the promise of as it is decided, will it be determined with stealing $60,000 of Government funds. He was eageht with all the money on his person.

Postmaster-General Dennison, during September, reëstablished postal service on 50 of the most important routes, and reopened 450 post-offices in the Southern States.
The Alabama Convention on Thursday re.

fused to submit the amendments which they have made to the Constitution to the popular vote. Jefferson Davis was removed yesterday morning, under a strong guard, from his easemate prison to the quarters assigned bim in Carroll Hall, The publication of The Baltimore Clipper has been abandoned, and a new journal-The Commercialwas yesterday issued in its stead. Gov. Morrison of Florida has issued a proclamation, ordering an election for a State Convention on the lat of October. Col. Geo. W. Palmer, the new Commissary, General for this State, entered upon his duties in this city yesterday. The total number of deaths in this city last week was 422-men, 104; women, 74; boys, 131; girls

The inauguration of Robert E. Lee as Presiast week, there were but very few pardon applicants at the White House yesterday.

The overland route is reported to be free from Indian depredations and the stages running on

Ex-Gov. Horton of Texas died at Matagorda

on the lat of Sentember.

and stocks were more freely offered on seilers' options. In the street the market was generally lower. Money among stock houses is quoted at 526 per cent, and borrowers are readily supplied. There is more doing in commercial paper, and 7 per cent is the rate for best names. Second-rate, 8212 thereby be saved." Of all acts looking toward and is determined to heap on England. That per cent. The bank statement shows an increase in all do partments except in the specie, which has fallen $578,030.

CONNECTICUT AND FREE SUF.

Connecticut, in her election yesterday, refused the right of suffrage to the colored people within her limits. The oldest of her citizens act of short-sightedness and injustice. She has ment did not adopt as severe measures as it heartily ashamed of herself, then, indeed, has Mexico may be. committed wrong from pure love of it, for nobody should have done. I say this to let men know every sensitive feeling left the English breast. will pretend that the decision would, either one that I for one don't yield Slavery willingly. I believe that setting the slaves free in these The Radical Republicans of Wisconsin held character of the State, so far as votes are con- States will be put down as the blackest act ever cerned. There are only, according to the last ensus, about 2,000 negroes in the State who would be entitled to the suffrage, and if they all voted with either party it would not change the result, presuming parties to continue to hold the relahave given the right of suffrage to the blacks in spite of the whole Copperhead vote in the State. Not to do so was to add just so much moral be made, and it was discovered that Fenianism had strength to the Copperhead party, and to weaken their own. The act is simply one of war has not been enough to knead the dough out of the old pro-Slavery subserviency of Conthem into it, and they haven't acquired manhood enough, even from the last four years' teaching, to have got over it. The old marks of the slave-driver's whip are as plain on the them to destroy the Radical party." back of Connecticut to-day as they are on the pitched battles with the red skins, losing 24 killed and store for us to make us wiser. Connecticut, Constitution." two wounded, and inflicting on them a loss of from 400 like Alabams, turns her eyes backward to the recreancy for which the price must be paid, if

It is useless to affect any surprise at the ordicharge. The Judge took the papers and reserved his decision.

Gen. Carby has suspended Assistant Superinger from his duties, pending an investigation into recording a whole Court under arrest a few days since.

Gov. Oglesby of Illinois, has issued an address to the Governors of the different States and Teritories, to be submitted by them to the Legislatures, to be submitted by them to the Legislatures, and people of their States, asking more active and officient cooperation in the matter of raising funds for the Lincoln monument.

The government of the Alabama Convention excluding men's Bureau, or any other enter toward placed and protection by law for the negros. Abolish that Bureau, withdraw the United States shows have pointed to such a conclusion. There toops—as seems to be the present policy at Washington—open the doors of Congress to the Governors of the different States and Teritories, to be submitted by them to the Legislatures and people of their States, asking more active and officient cooperation in the matter of raising funds for the Lincoln monument.

The stall of Ed. B. Ketchum, the noted of the Alabama Convention excluding men's Bureau, or any other energy to any other energy and reserved his face and protection by law for the negro. Abolish that Bureau, withdraw the United States shows the submitted States shows the submitted states to be the propect to the United States.

The protection by law for the negro. Abolish that Bureau, withdraw the United States shows the submitted States and the United States and the people of the United States.

The address of the Mozart Democracy—else-by the uner who made that war and carried it to the bitter end. As we know, and carried it to the bitter end. As we know, and carried it to the bitter end. As we know, and carried it to the bitter end. As we know, and carried it to the bitter end. As we know, and carried it to the bitter end. As we know, and carried it to the bitter end. As we know, and carried it to the bitter end. As we know, and carried it to the b nance of the Alabama Convention excluding counsel was adjourned to Monday next. The case of to the freedman every civil right except the Henry B. Jenkins of Phenix Bank notoriety, was also right not to be sold on the auction block. Erspectponed to the same day.

The Administration is taking pains to heap duty to see that the colored people have a share in such authority, so that they may be able to protect them coals of fire upon the head of England. During Dr. Wilmer, formerly pastor of St. Marks kine, raised to the peerage, painted over his our war that nation made itself conspicuous by This speech of Senator Howe was preceded by tion as that is an outrage against civilization hope. but one degree less brutal than Slavery itself.

cludes him in every case.

Slavery is abolished. He would not admit that Fenianism from every pulpit. if he could help it. Neither he nor any other The London Times states that the information those acts are all unconstitutional, illegal trouble; now, when trouble threatens its posses same venomous outpourings. can mean to do justice to the freedmen, whose of eminent men there present, from the untive positions they have for a few years past. emancipation, in their eyes, is a crime of the speeches, the great ability and courage of the speeches, any real freedom for the blacks to exist within exercised so direct and general an influence as its limits? Nor is this feeling of exasperation this will upon the people of Wisconsin. against the negro and against the authors of his freedom the sole motive which controls the pressed in its resolutions was Impartial Suffrage, policy of the Convention. Mr. Langdon, bit- as an essential condition of a safe Reconstruction gross injustice, which can only be accounted terly hating emancipation as he does, yet tells and the security of the Union in the future. It for by the fact that even four years of terrible terry nating emancipation as he does, yet terrs the Convention they must admit it formally— was unanimously resolved: otherwise no chance of readmission and no other means toward that political supremacy which the pro-Slavery leaders expect to reëstablish over the North. "The gentieman is mistaken in this in the boar of the nation, after having called in the negro to aid us, to abandon him in the boar of that victory which his efforts helped to secure; that to brand him as unworthy the right of suffrage is to deliver him disarmed and help less into the hands of his enemies; and that, therefore, it is competent and right, and in accordance with that necticut to their Southern slaveholding masters. the pro-Slavery leaders expect to reëstablish They hated black men because Slavery whipped over the North. "The gentieman is mistaken backs of the half-emancipated blacks of the that particularly large cat out of the bag. cross the Plains, and manifested quite a disposi- ance of which cannot yet be calculated. style as before. "We have not been dis- titled to vote. Wrong is sometimes to be measured, not by the graced," be deciares, "and I want our Con-If we have not yet learned to be but independent, as guilty of no crime, and to Legislature of the State had passed a law

500 killed, beside utterly destroying an entire vil. old days of Slavery and Overseership, and in ful in anybody's mind, listen to this: "We must get to agree to. There are but 353 colored men in so doing assures Alabama that her struggle for control of these negroes. . . . We cannot en- Wisconsin; the question, therefore, might seem lost dominion is not without hope. It is a dure what is now going on. I will not particular of little practical importance, but Senator Howe getting back into the Union."

spired by the spirit of Freedom instead of tions of other bodies of men, who insist that true." Slavery. This, and not the so-called ordi- they are Indians, and brothers, and sons of On the whole, we judge the Wisconsin Renance of abolition, stereotypes the opinion Rechab, and warriors of the tribe of Gideon, publicans have very clear ideas of their own, of the Convention. This is the shape which There is no reason why a number of Irish gen- and don't hesitate to express them. such speeches as that we quoted from last tlemen should not call themselves Fenians, and speaker parts willingly with the institution. upon which these arrests were made was fur-"Most gladly," exclaims Mr. Langdon, "would nished by the Washington Government. This I vote for the substitute, if the institution could circumstance shows what coals of fire Mr. Sewemancipation, he says, "I agree that country was our greatest foe when we were in and atrocious. . . We are not responsions, we shall be its best friend. We have sible for the act. . . I glory in the no doubt the credit of unvailing the movefact that we yielded no principle till we were ments of the Fenians should be given to Col. compelled to... The Proclamation of the Presi- Baker, our Government detective. England dent and acts of Congress were unmitigated in- sent us the Alabama-we return by telling her humanities. . . . I denounced it as an atrocity, that such and such people are Fenians, and to who went to the polls may live to regret that and I still believe that the Confederate Govern- be surely caged. If that Government is not performed." There is any quantity more of the a convention at Janesville last week, for the are gains of substantial importance, which conpurpose of expressing their views on national over the North. "The gentieman is mistaken in thinking that we are conciliating the Radicals. We are acting not only for ourselves, but also for our friends in the North, to enable them to destroy the Radical party."

We are obliged to Mr. Langdon for letting that particularly large cat out of the lands of his enemies; and that, therefore, it is competent and right, and in accordance with that sometime of his protection, to impose on the States recently engaged in Rebellion as a further condition of their return to full fellowship in the Union, that in fixing the qualifications for the exercise of the elective franchise in their several constituencies, they make no discrimination against any person on account of race or color."

Words could not declare more explicitly that whatever theories about the impossibility of the Democratic leaders at the North have noti- Secession might prevail, the States were practipeace and the restoration of the Union more fied their old allies that they must agree to some cally under control of the Federal Government, was rather more snobbish than disloyal, and difficult. That heretofore 2,000 men in a voting show of emancipation to conciliate Northern as was shown by the appointment of Provisional will be now read by a hundred people where panied by the American Consul, paid a visit to present the Government. Families who present the Government of Frovisional one would have read it a week ago. The result were carried out conscientiously. The chorus, too, was present the grant of the Government. Families who present the grant of the Government of Frovisional one would have read it a week ago. The result were carried out conscientiously. The chorus, too, was present the grant of the Government of Frovisional one would have read it a week ago. The result were carried out conscientiously. The chorus, too, was present the grant of the Government of Frovisional one would have read it a week ago. The result were carried out conscientiously. The chorus, too, was present the grant of the Government of Frovisional one would have read it a week ago. The result were carried out conscientiously. The chorus, too, was present the grant of the Government of Frovisional one would have read it a week ago. The result were carried out conscientiously. The chorus, too, was present the grant of t necticut, though a very base wrong and a sigis reviving, new newspapers have been started, and the paper started again with an immense and the paper started again with an immense paper started again with a manufacture started again with small practical importance. But that such tion looking to the security of the freedmen resolve that Congress in conjunction with the an evil example should be followed and sustained by the moral influence of Connecticut against such oppression as this Ambania ordinate of exclusion from the courts contemproper authority to fix on the conditions of respectively. in depriving 800,000 loyal men at the South of plates. Mr. Langdon, however, proposes to construction, and that all the loyal people of plates. Mr. Langdon, however, proposes to construction, and that all the loyal people of plates.

> ballot-box, a law which required the ratification crafty soldiers manage to do stupid things. If the policy then to be pursued be still doubt- of the people, and which he besought the people ize, for you all know to what I refer. We know reminded his fellow citizens that "it is of imhow to manage the negro batter than anybody mensely more importance to you, white men, else, but we cannot get control of him without first and to your characters as citizens and Republicans, that you shall do this, than it is to any Needless to continue the quotations. What interest that these 353 black men have." The Alabama cannot endure is simply the Freed Senator urged it as one step toward securing men's Bureau, or any other effort toward jus- suffrage for the negroes of the South, and that doors the legend, "Trial by Jury," to signify doing all it could in behalf of the Southern Con- one from Gen. Paine, of the same tenor, and at the beginning of the war, returned and attempted to his sense of its inestimable value to the free federacy. For two years at least Earl Russell followed by one from the Union candidate for law. Under this Alabama ordinance the only any sincere desire on the part of the English He sees that "this question of negro suffrage is It is understood that orders will be issued in spot a negro has a right to occupy in the court. Government to prevent her piratical journey. the great one now before the American people. by your friends. * few days to disband the Veteran Reserve Corps. The room is the prisoner's dock. When he is there, So with other armed ships and transports of sup- It will be the great one before Congress when Regular Army is now sufficiently recruited to take the charged it may be with a capital crime, the word plies to the Southern States. While America these Rebels are applying to come back, and of a perjured white man who never saw him may was compelled to recognize the fact that Lord the terms on which they are to come convict him and send him to the gallows, Russell did not go beyond the letter of the law, back have to be decided upon, and perfect innocence. Such law and such legisla- neutrality was kept to the ear and broken to the whether we shall hereafter have in the South, Free States, based upon freedom A number of enthusiastic gentlemen have and justice, or the slave tyranny of the past. It her citizens because they are scarcely as white It outstrips even the barbarity of the slave formed associations, called themselves Fenians, is therefore the duty of the people to interest as Toucey and Seymour, or as black as Alexancode, for that permitted the negro to testify in and occasionally make speeches about the themselves deeply in this subject, and while we der Dumas and Frederick Douglass. cases where negroes only were parties; this ex. liberation of Ireland. In addition to other refuse to restore to power the Democratic party amusements, we are told that they are engrav- of the North, also refuse to restore power In judging of the loyalty of Alabama and ofher ing pictures with inscriptions, and that these to the Democratic party of the South. If the whom she did not emancipate, this last ordi- bonds for the new Irish Republic. We never and Copperheadism will be made respectable, nance controls all other testimony-were there imagined that these demonstrations would and patriotism and liberty made odious, and if any testimony anywhere that the State is in- amount to anything more than the demonstra- on the basis of loyalty, the reverse will be week finally take. That speech-Mr. if they want to make speeches about freeing One of the Assistant-Commissioners of the from the beginning to the end. Everybody is troubled, per White's-might be deemed the utterance Ireland, or any subject of rhetorical suggestive- Freedmen's Bureau remarks in a note which but none of them have "a silent sorrow," for all shout of bat one man. It was in fact the opinion of ness, whose business is it? It never annoyed has been handed to us: "I suppose we shall the Convention. In all its proceedings we us. We rather liked it, for Irishmen are un- turn over our work soon to State officers-then, have not discovered one speech pitched in a surpassed as orators, and never speak to better alas for the poor African!" The reasons for his lent of Washington College at Lexington, Va., was announced to take place yesterday.

Owing to the large number of pardons granted.

Owing to the large number of pardons granted.

Owing to the large number of pardons granted. White talks. In the last report that comes to us, we find an address by Mr. Langdon of Mobile, in opposition to the substitute offered by Mr. White, making the recognition of emancipation contingent on the decision of the Supreme Court. Yet the former speech was milk-preme Court. Yet the former speech was milk-sort of concealment of the fact that the present work in Hendrice Rev. The English fleet is sort of concealment of the fact that the present work in Hendrice Rev. There are not continuent and water to this. Mr. Langdon makes no sort of concealment of the fact that the present work in Hendrice Rev. There are found, but they have hardy composition to the substitute offered that any such pales of the Subscitute offers, the condition of the substitute offered and every suspicious person who lands in Irelative to Rebel State officers, the condition of the negro will be deplorable indeed. While they bear but little comparison to the whole works are found, but they have hardy composition to the sheep, before the composer diverges, cuts up placed him in office, but would always be read, then, which is the same thing, if its duties are to be intrusted to Rebel State officers, the condition of the substitute offered and every suspicious person who lands in Irelative to Rebel State officers, the condition of the negro will be deplorable indeed. While they bear but little comparison to the whole works are just they bear but little comparison to the whole work. There are, of course, redeeming points, but they bear but little comparison to the whole work as just and then goes over the same routine immediately. There are, of course, redeeming points, but they bear but little comparison to the whole work as just and then goes over the same routine immediately. There are, of course, calculations than the first down to a skeleton, which is the same thing, if its duties are to be dissolved, or, which is the same thing, if the drift of which was referred to be as a judge of good whisky. There are, of course, calculations the Owing to the large number of pardons granted White talks. In the last report that comes to gentlemen have talked so loudly that England If the Freedmen's Bureau is to be dissolved, or, request. Relivery shares were strong and in good demand. Sary to get back into the Union, and no more. and guns on board. Societies have also been —what must be his fate in the hands of a white, they were hourse, and all the artists had been recalled allourned.

The large advance in several leading shares has caused a good Therefore he deems it inevitable to admit that broken up, and the priests are thundering at aristocracy which hates him for his logalty and believe such a policy is contemplated by the > MEXICO. We publish this morning a full and interesting report on the progress of events in Mexico. Our correspondent does not conceal his sympathy with the cause of the Empire, which he looks upon as the savior of the country from anarchy, and as the promoter of order and civilization. But whether these opinions be correct or not, the many new facts contained in the letter will enlist the interest of all Americans, whatever their opinions concerning

The military news has been for some time very unfavorable to the cause of the Republic. The capture of Chihuahua, and the progress of The Radical Republicans of Wisconsin held the French in Sonora and other Pacific States, Now who believes that a convention of affairs and ratifying the nominations of the National Government can exercise any power which Mr. White and Mr. Langdon are leaders Union party. Judging from the large number and on which it can lean for support. The statement respecting the Indians fully agrees a timbre favorable to work upon, and she only needs a emancipation, in their eyes, is a crime of the flinching plainness of the resolutions, and from with what we have learned from other trust-The Republicans could, if they had chosen, left under the guidance of such men, will allow no convention ever held in that State has lying around the throne of the Emperor, and as the latter seems to be determined to establish which she could hardly hope to achieve now. We have for all the inhabitants of the country free and no doubt that she will improve with each performance,

Of much more importance than the war oper- thusiastic character. He is evidently warmly appreations, is the progress of internal reforms. Our clated by the New-York public. He sang w correspondent gives on this subject a number of facts which deserve to be pondered. It is by successes upon the field that Maximilian hopes is well to have a giant's voice, but it is no to secure the stability of the imperial rule. Al- always well to use it like a giant. One fine his though we do not believe that his hopes in this of artistic singing we must place to his credit respect will ultimately be realized, his efforts in behalf of reforms are very praiseworthy and a dered this most charmingly, and if our singers would permanent gain for the prosperity of the ot cultivated ears; that no music demands it; that is stopped another paper. The offensive article vocal art, at present in vogue. Kansas, positively refused on Monday last to obey an order to cross the Plains, and manifested quite a disposihad his newspaper stopped also, and at once some strategy, the camp of the multineers was surround-spirit that prompted it, but by the couseed, and they were taken in. The greater portion of quences that follow. Injustice to the black them subsequently agreed to obey orders, but about 40. them subsequently agreed to obey orders, but about 40, of showing their appreciation of "suppressed" with a bold front and a high head, as nonest from wisconsin. He indorsed the resolutions of showing their appreciation of "suppressed" men, and not as criminals supplicating mercy without reserve. He further called the attenthe graves of its first-born and its bravest. [Is Mr. Langdon's petition for pardon on file | tion of the Convention to the fact that the last other lessons in fearlessly demand our rights in the name of the abolishing the exclusion of the negroes from the question. It is singular how often wise and ney of New-York, and a kind of miscellaneous Democrat, writes a letter to Louisiana. "It is Democrat, writes a letter to Louisiana. "It is encouraging," he says, "to see, as I do by your paper, that the undying Democracy are resuscitating in your State for the future." We presume this is a delicate way Cox has of welcomsume this is a delicate way Cox has of welcoming all the Rebels home again. Our spry little ex-Congressman will find Democrats enough in Louisiana. He evidently expects something. Louisiana. He evidently expects service yet gate.

"If God spare me I hope to do some service yet gate.
Aug.

document, lightly commending the President, March 5; Singapore, March 9; And taking particular pains not to commend the Batavia, March 15; Rhio, May 18 Albany nominations. The address urges upon the people of the city to unite, remedy many of our local evils by a defeat of bad men, and war our local evils by a defeat of bad men, and war of the file of the officers:

Commander C. R. P. Rodgers Lieutenanh Greene and Alex. H. McCornick; Action M. emphasizing this doctrine is clear and bold. trust Mozart will be true to her pledges.

Judge Long. Democratic candidate for Lieudoors the legend, "Trial by Jury," to signify have found strong enough to denounce an lips have found strong en officiate last Sunday, but was deserted by a large per Englishman. What words would his indignant was an ally, negatively, of the South, and did Attorney-General of Wisconsin, who avows his act that denies to the half-freed negro not emissary of Jefferson Davis. This was particuaccount of the publication of an obnoxious article merely trial by his peers, but the right to be larly shown in the case of the Alabama. That the preservation of this Union, and to save appropriation of a single dollar to pay the interest on the national debt." We trust to have the Judge's speech in full in The World. Stand

A number of stories are affoat about attempts to assassinate Grant and Sherman, by running railway cars off the track. This is too bad on the railroads. Their assassinations are not confined to Major-Generals.

Connecticut disfranchises two thousand of

The production of Petrella's opera, "Ione, disposition to concede manhood to the negro pictures thus properly legended are called the States are reorganized on a Rebel basis, treason attracted a very large and brilliant audience lest night. The house was so full, indeed, that the unusual an nonneement was posted outside, "Standing room only." Such large audiences clearly indicate the deep interest which the public takes in operatic music, when the ompany is worthy of its favor. The cast of " Ione" was very strong; all the artists were recognized favorites, with the exception of one, Mdile. Enrichetta Bosisio, who tried her strength last night against the critical judgment of our musical circles. "lone" is a very noisy opera; it is a perpetual flur from the beginning to the end. Everybody is troubled, but none of them have "a silent sorrow," for all shoat out their griefs in the public highway, but are unobserved where others are shouting too. Petrella is a noisier and weaker style of Verdi, an imitator without his genius. There is literally not one clear, straightforward melody in the work. Very many small but good phrases are found, but they have hardly formed into shape, before the composer diverges, cuts up the before the curtain a second time. This was the ere een disappointed with the debutante at first, for MdBe Bosisio made but little impression in the two first acts. She, however, aroused the suthusiasm of the acdecidedly handsome, well formed and interestrong points in her favor. She bears herself well and od actress-a little too demonstrative perhapaand her voice is of that material from which a brilliand singer can be made. Her upper notes, when tasked can be overcome by a little judicious study. as her intennation is stready true. Bosisio is one of dramatic education, but the delicate and inte All the graces of the vocal art so necessary to all production of a great body of emphatic sound or have not been included in her study. To sum up her style in a word, it is raw. from which to make a good singer. She has youth, and beauty of form and figure, is a good actress, has sentiment and passion, sings well in tune, and has a voice of more precise education to fit her for a high position accomplished singer, to win a reputation and a success a horse, we do not expect him to neigh all the time. It real life people do not continually bawl at each other we should have fewer prematurely worn-out voices Our military authorities in Richmond have and the intellectual would prevail over the recall to the classic traveler the well-remembered is calities of that disinterred city. He will recognize important chronological facts by attending the Acad

Miss Adelaide Phillips. Signori Bellini and Antonucci were respectively excellent. The orchestration was

"Ione" will be represented this evening with the same cast, and on Thursday evening it will formed at the Brooklyn Academy of Music.

Naval Intelligence. ARRIVAL OF THE SCREW-SLOOP IROQUOR.

The steam screw-sloop Iroqueis, 9 guns Commander C. R. P. Rodgers, arrived at the Kary the Atlantic Ocean and the East Indies, whence she came in 94 days, including seven days spent in ports. The Iroquois was put in commis

Wm. K. Wheeler; Surgeon Job Corvin; A John A. Bates, jr. A ching Chief Enz. Joseph Acting First Assis, W. H. Best and Romed Second Assi. John B. Rosch, Acting Third Ass and Ed. Ewell; Acting Gunner, J. C. Ciapham: Furrington, C. Riee, Wm. Welch, B. F. Rot. Clerk, E. F. Gay; Paymaster scilera, J. H. Hun Yesterday, the snip began to discharge h stores, and she will urobably he not not. of the Iroquois.

THE MIANTONOMA.

Capt. A. M. Pennock and Naval Constructor Delano, embarked on board of the tag Catalpa reservay morning, and went down to the lower bay, when them went on board of the Miantonoma, and specified any in trying her speed. It is rumored that ale will soon be laid up at the iron-clad depot on the Delaware River. River. THE ALGONQUIN AND WINGOSEL

THE ALGONQUIN AND WINOOSK!

The Algonquin's feed-pipe has not yet been sent on from the foundery of the Providence Steam Estine Works, nor are we able to state when its skips will be able to resume their work. The Winoosii kready, and has been for some time. The Algonquist boilers are reported to have been badly strained and many of tile tables leaking badly. The joiners are a work upon her.

Meeting of the Democracy Gratine to its Fnithful Serrants-A Nomine tion which will Bedect Credit on the

Despite the follies, we will not say "rices," of the Democracy, they are distinguished by one remarkable trait—they never forget their friends a long as the latter can be of service. This was bere better exemplified than in the nomination of Janes Irving, better known as Jim Irving the puglist, a 20 torious "shoulder hitter" and "fancy man," to the high and honorable office of Alderman from the XIVth Di-trict. This nomination which of course in that section is equivalent to an election, is but the simple acknowledgment of many years bard service in doing he draw work of the party, keeping order at primary meeting. "laving out" enemies, and acting generally as a "ship-per in."